Tea Club Policy

The Tea Club Policy at Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening) embodies the spirit of fostering community engagement and providing a space for relaxation and social interaction among students, faculty, and staff. Operated on a "No Profit No Loss" basis, the Tea Club serves as a hub for individuals to unwind, connect, and rejuvenate amidst the demands of academic life.

Objectives:

- 1. Community Building: The primary goal of the Tea Club Policy is to promote community building by offering a welcoming environment where individuals from diverse backgrounds can come together, share experiences, and build lasting relationships.
- 2. Affordable Refreshments: The policy aims to provide affordable and quality refreshments, primarily tea, to members of the college community, ensuring access to a basic amenity that contributes to their well-being.
- 3. Financial Sustainability: Operated on a "No Profit No Loss" basis, the Tea Club endeavors to maintain financial sustainability by covering its operational expenses while offering refreshments at nominal prices to patrons.
- 4. Social Hub: The Tea Club serves as a social hub within the college premises, facilitating informal interactions, discussions, and networking opportunities among students, faculty, and staff.
- 5. Student Entrepreneurship: The policy encourages student involvement in the management and operation of the Tea Club, providing them with opportunities to gain practical experience in entrepreneurship, customer service, and financial management.

Implementation Strategies:

- Pricing Structure: The Tea Club implements a pricing structure that ensures affordability for patrons while covering the cost of raw materials, labor, and overhead expenses. Prices are set to achieve financial equilibrium, balancing affordability with sustainability.
- Quality Assurance: The Tea Club prioritizes quality in its refreshments, sourcing ingredients from reputable suppliers and adhering to strict hygiene and food safety standards in preparation and serving.
- Student Participation: Students are encouraged to actively participate in the operation and management of the Tea Club through student-led initiatives, committees, or clubs dedicated to overseeing its activities.
- Transparent Accounting: Transparent accounting practices are maintained to track revenue, expenses, and inventory, ensuring accountability and facilitating informed decision-making regarding pricing, procurement, and resource allocation.
- Feedback Mechanisms: Regular feedback mechanisms are established to solicit input from patrons regarding the quality, variety, and pricing of refreshments, enabling continuous improvement and responsiveness to changing preferences.

The Tea Club Policy at Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening) reflects the institution's commitment to fostering community, affordability, and sustainability. By adhering to the principles of "No Profit No Loss" and prioritizing quality, affordability, and student engagement, the Tea Club serves as a vibrant social hub where individuals can relax, connect, and enjoy a refreshing break from their academic pursuits. Through transparent management practices and ongoing feedback mechanisms, the Tea Club continues to evolve, meeting the diverse needs and preferences of its patrons while upholding its core values within the framework of the ethos of University of Delhi.
