Departmental Study Material Resources

The college library plays a vital role in supporting academic endeavors by providing access to a wide range of study materials and resources. In line with this objective, Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening) ensures the availability of departmental study materials to support the academic needs of students and faculty members across various disciplines.

Scope: The college library maintains a collection of study materials, including textbooks, reference books, journals, and other relevant resources tailored to the academic requirements of different departments within the college. These materials cover a diverse range of subjects and topics to support teaching, learning, and research activities across disciplines.

Access and Availability: Students and faculty members have access to departmental study materials through the college library's catalogue system. These materials are organized and categorized based on departmental classifications, making it easy for users to locate and retrieve relevant resources. Additionally, electronic databases and online resources are available for accessing digital study materials and academic journals remotely.

Procurement and Management: The college library collaborates with department heads and faculty members to identify and procure department-specific study materials based on curriculum requirements and academic recommendations. The library's acquisition policy ensures the timely acquisition and maintenance of relevant resources to support the evolving needs of students and faculty members.

Usage and Circulation: Departmental study materials are available for reference within the library premises, allowing students and faculty members to access them during their study sessions. Additionally, selected materials may be available for circulation, enabling users to borrow resources for extended study periods or academic projects. The library's circulation policy governs the borrowing and return procedures for departmental study materials to ensure equitable access for all users.
