Differently Abled Infrastructure and Assistance – Equal Opportunity Cell

In pursuit of fostering an environment of equity and access, Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening), affiliated with the University of Delhi, takes a resolute step forward with the establishment of its Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC). Embracing the ethos of diversity and inclusion, we stand firm in our dedication to providing a supportive platform for individuals of all abilities.

The objectives of our EOC are manifold, aimed at creating a supportive milieu conducive to the holistic development and academic success of individuals with disabilities. Central to our mission is the provision of comprehensive facilities and accommodations, meticulously designed to ensure unfettered access and participation in all facets of college life. From the implementation of barrier-free environments and installation of ramps and lifts to the provision of specialized washroom facilities, our commitment to accessibility is unwavering.

Furthermore, our EOC is entrusted with the responsibility of identifying and sanctioning posts specifically designated for persons with disabilities, in strict adherence to the guidelines outlined by the University of Delhi. This process entails meticulous consideration of equitable employment opportunities, inclusive promotion practices, and adherence to academic training standards prescribed by the University.

In addition to infrastructure enhancements, our EOC is dedicated to providing a range of aids, assistive devices, and technological resources to facilitate academic enrichment and empower individuals with disabilities to realize their full potential. From accessible libraries equipped with specialized software to classrooms outfitted with adaptive technology, our aim is to cultivate an environment where every member of our college community can thrive.

Through these concerted efforts, we aspire to foster an ethos of inclusivity, respect, and social responsibility within our college community. By championing diversity and accessibility, we reaffirm our commitment to excellence and equity at Zakir Husain Delhi College (Evening), University of Delhi.
